

OPERATION

When the completed structure is operational, the Emergency Response Intervention Craft (ERIC) will provide safe access to the turbine.

The access and egress system is designed to ensure no impact on the structure, and simple step forward access to and from the vessel.

ZephIR pods will provide highly accurate wind velocity lidar measurement for the turbines. Each pod is 1.5m high and weighs 160kg.

Beatrice
Wind Farm Demonstrator Project